

You're invited to one of the most important conversations of your life

Come experience an innovative game called "Hello" that makes conversations about living and dying and what matters most to you easy and even fun.

Brisco Community Hall: Tuesday, February 6 at 7pm
Edgewater Legion Hall: Wednesday, February 7 at 1:30pm
Canal Flats Seniors Centre: Wednesday, February 7 at 7pm
Fairmont Lions Hall: Monday, February 12 at 2pm
Invermere Legion Hall: Tuesday, February 13 at 1:30

What a delightful evening my husband and I had as we played this game for the first time! After 42 years of marriage it was wonderful to discuss something new and different.

Mitzi, Age 67

If you can answer these questions, you can play this game!

Question 8

What music do you want to be listening to on your last day alive?

Question 5

If you needed help going to the bathroom today, who is the first person you would ask to help you?

Who would you never be able to ask?

Question 11

In order to provide you with the best care possible, what three non-medical facts should your doctor know about you?

Sponsored By:

BC Centre for Palliative Care

For more info or to register:
 (778) 526-5143
info@hospicesocietycv.com